9:45 - 10:00AM	Break
10:00 - 11:30AM	Workshops

A. 2015 Drug Threats      Officer Jason Weber, Town of Menasha Police Department
Have you met Molly? Are your grandkids using bricks? How about vaping? These are just the tip of the iceberg when it comes to drug threats facing our communities! Learn about these new threats with an update on heroin and meth in Wisconsin.

B. Hoarding/DeCluttering      Lori Wirth, Madison Fire Department
Even if your home hasn't reached reality-show level of catastrophe, you could be suffering from "Clutter-Creep". If you are running out of places to put things, it may be the things that need to go. Lori will discuss strategies for reducing clutter before it overtakes you and becomes a fire and health hazard.

C. Dementia Education for Law Enforcement      Dane County Deputy Leslie Fox
This workshop is designed for law enforcement. It will cover signs and symptoms of dementia and how this affects a law enforcement officer's response. It will also cover effective methods in dealing with persons who have dementia on traffic stops and calls for service. Locative technologies and responding to wandering incidents will also be discussed. Case examples and resources will also be shared.

D. Guarding Financial Health      Michael Esser, Edward Jones, Inc., Marsha Tesar, Attorney
As our population ages, abuse of older adults will likely increase along with their numbers. Already, 20% of Americans over age 65 report they have been "taken advantage of financially in terms of inappropriate investments, unreasonably high fees for financial services to outright fraud."

11:30 - 12:30PM Lunch, Exhibits, Door Prizes

12:30 - 1:45PM      Workshops

A. Brain Health and Recognizing Depression      Joy Schmidt, Alzheimer's & Dementia Alliance of Wisconsin
Current research indicates that lifestyle choices have significant impact on long term health. In this program you will learn how the brain works, tips on ways to keep your brain healthy as you age, and how to lower your risk of developing dementia. This program features information about current research, scientifically-rooted nutritional and lifestyle advice as well as fun brain teasers and material to take home. You will learn ways to recognize caregiver stress and depression and how this can affect the health of both the recipient of care and caregiver.

B. Domestic Violence in Later Life      Ann Goth, Domestic Abuse Intervention Services (DAIS)
Information will be presented in services and programs that DAIS provides to all victims of domestic violence and specifically how those services can be accessed and helpful to elderly victims of domestic violence. Ann will speak about cases DAIS advocates have encountered and will address the barriers elderly victims face. She will also discuss how DAIS advocates communicate with elderly victims as well as struggles and triumphs when working with this population.

C. (2 Parts)
Safe Driving: "Keeping the Keys"      Jim Kubek, American Automobile Association
It is an AAA developed program that discusses lowering mature driver risk and planning for transportation and independence after giving up automobile ownership.

Bus Buddys      Diana Jost, RSVP of Dane County
Bus Buddy Tours offer seniors age 60 and over an opportunity to go on a group trip by city bus to a designated location while learning how to navigate the Madison Metro Bus System. The program was designed to help ease the way for those who don't drive and are not used to using the bus system while creating a fun social group outing for those involved.

D. Firearms, Concealment and Current Laws      Dane County Deputy Mike Butler
The current Carrying a Concealed Weapon laws will be discussed; what to look for when a person is carrying a concealed weapon; where a person may conceal a firearm; how to interact with Law Enforcement when carrying a concealed firearm; who is disqualified from carrying a firearm; and other firearm safety related topics.

1:45 - 2:00PM      Break

2:00 - 3:30PM      Workshops

A. Parent Addiction Network: A program of Safe Communities      Dane County Deputies Cindy Holmes & Josalyn Longley, and Ellen Taylor-Powell
Is someone you love abusing drugs? Afraid your child or grandchild is using drugs? Find support and resources in a world of substance abuse and addiction. "So often we receive education on drug trends, paraphernalia and behavior associated with addiction. We don't do enough to educate those in need of resources and support". Parent Addiction Network fills this need.

B. Identity Theft      Kimberly Hazen, Better Business Bureau of Wisconsin, George Hesselberg, Wisconsin State Journal
Is your credit identity healthy? Having a healthy body means physically being able to do the things you want to do. Having a healthy credit identity means financially being able to do the things you want to do. Learn about the biggest threat to your credit identity... identity theft. Be able to spot the many different types of identity theft, how to prevent it, and the steps to take if you are a victim.

C. After the Arrest: A Layman's Walk Through the System      Detective Mark Zwart, Madison Police Department
You hear someone has been "arrested." What does that mean and what happens now? The purpose of this presentation is to explain the process following a criminal arrest. The interaction between the various agencies including the arresting agency, Dane County Jail, Dane County District Attorney's Office, and the Dane County Circuit Court will be discussed.

D. Older Adult Bullying      *Angela Velasquez, Dane County Area Agency on Aging
Caroline Werner, LGBT Senior Advocate, OutReach LGBT Community Center
Akeem Torres and Foster Grandparent Volunteers, RSVP of Dane County*

Can't we all just get along? This presentation and panel will address how older adults can deal with conflicts arising from cultural differences, including misunderstandings that may be perceived as bullying behaviors. A diverse panel will provide insight into senior bullying behaviors and further discussion as to how culture and other differences may influence our perceptions.

3:30 - 3:45PM      Break

3:45 - 4:00PM      Closing remarks      Wisconsin Attorney General - Brad D. Schimel (Invited)
